

After you have been in the hospital for a period of time, there is no place like home.

Provided as an inpatient service, our 24-hour skilled nursing care might be the right fit for you if you have had a qualifying hospital stay (three consecutive days or more for an acute illness, injury, medical procedure, or worsening of a chronic disease), and need short-term skilled nursing and/or rehabilitation care before transitioning home.

Taking a team approach to your care, our staff will assist you to make the safe transition back to home when you are ready. You will receive individualized care that may include plans for medications, nutritional counseling, and physical and occupational therapy. Together we will help you regain your strength, mobility, and independence so you can return home safely.
